

Gala Dinner Announcements!

The Convention Centre Dublin | Friday, 29th June 2012 | 20:00 'til late!

We are delighted to officially announce the entertainment for the ICEM 2012 Gala Dinner. Guests attending the Gala Dinner will experience a truly enjoyable and memorable evening, incorporating the best of contemporary Irish hospitality, talent and culture.

You can get your ticket through the normal registration process or by re-accessing your registration.

Master of Ceremonies for the evening will be Barry Murphy, 'one of the high kings of Irish comedy'. Whether as one-third of Après Match, as his German alter ego Günther, or as his surreal and wonderful self, Barry is simply not to be missed. His sheer originality and persistent longevity, guarantee that there is no other performer like him.

Once guests have enjoyed pre-dinner drinks and a fabulous four-course dinner they will be treated to a unique performance by the award winning Extreme Rhythm. Featuring percussionists, Irish dancers, and traditional Irish musicians, this is a stellar line up of Ireland's highly accomplished performers and is the perfect display of a modern, sophisticated Ireland in a high-impact, high-energy 25 minute performance.

And the evening doesn't end there! Radioshack are a six piece band with a sophisticated sound and look, playing a mix of classic and contemporary hits that is guaranteed to pack any dancefloor!
